Troop 546 Receives Flag

Boy Scout Troop 546 (above) was presented a United States flag flown over the Capitol Bldg. during a Court of Honor held recently at Appomattox Intermediate School. Donald Scruggs, celebrating his eleventh birthday and his official entrance into Scouting as a Tenderfoot, gave the Ten Boy Scout Laws. Institutional representative Ivey Holland (far right) made the flag presentation on behalf of the Appomattox Lions. Rep. W. M Abbitt made arrangements to have the flag flown over the Capitol. Scoutmaster, Floyd Flint (far left) and his assistants presented badges to Mike Helter, Ken Helter, Warren Seay and a Tenderfoot pin to Donald Scruggs. George Kelsey, Farmville, (tack row, center) showed slides of Camp Monocan and talked about Scouting. Many of these Scouts are spending the week at Camp Monocan, having left Sunday morning. Scoutmaster Flint says that scouting in Appomattox needs Merit Badge counselors, persons interested in carpentry, pottery, weaving and other skills to judge the Scouts for their badges. This is a new requirement for Scouting and provides the Scouts with more adults with whom to work.

SAYS THANKS TO EMPLOYERS OF 'RENT-A-SCOUTS'

RENT-A-SCOUT Day, June 19, proved to be a financial success for the eight Scouts of Troop 546 who participated, said Scout master Floyd Flint. The Scouts mowed lawns and performed other chores to obtain money for Camp Monocan (they left Sunday morning.) Thereby be other RENT-A-SCOUT Days, says the Scoutmaster if householders like the idea. In the meantime, he has expressed appreciation for the support for Scouting shown on Saturday and on many other occasions when adult help is needed to keep the program going.
